

Guthrie Award
Outstanding Corriedale Breeder of the Year
1951-2013

The Guthrie Award for the Outstanding Corriedale Breeder of the Year began in 1951 when it was first presented to J.F. Walker, Gambier, Ohio. Senator J.F. Guthrie donated this trophy to the Association, noted Corriedale breeder in Geelong, Victoria, Australia. Many stud rams were imported from his flock to the United States in the early years. The Guthrie trophy is given to a Corriedale breeder who has made major genetic contributions to the improvement and advancement of the Corriedale breed over at least the past three years. Show and sale results and participation in state and national activities are all considered in the evaluation of the nominees.

PS-The following was presented by Senator Guthrie and the Guthrie Trophy Committee as a point system to use in make the award selection:

1. Number of flocks—started—20 pts
2. Advertising—20 pts
3. Service to the Association and to the breed—20 pts
4. Improvement accomplished for the breed—40 pts
